2. All materials provided by the United States may be utilized by defendants and their counsel solely in connection with the defense of this case and for no other purpose and in connection with no other proceeding. The materials and any of their contents shall not be disclosed either directly or indirectly to any person or entity other than defendants, defendants' counsel, and persons assisting in the defense, or such other persons as to whom the Court may authorize disclosure. Any notes or records of any kind that defense counsel or defendants may make relating to the contents of materials provided by the government shall not be disclosed to anyone other than defendants' counsel, and persons employed to assist the defense, or such other person as to whom the Court may authorize disclosure, and all such notes and records shall not be disclosed except as provided by this Order.

3. The materials shall not be copied or reproduced except so as to provide copies of the material for the use by each defense lawyer and defendants and such persons as are employed by them to assist in the defense and such copies and reproductions shall be treated in the same manner as the original matter.

4. The restrictions set forth in this order do not apply to documents that are public record, including but not limited to, trial transcripts, documents that have been received in evidence at other trials, or documents that are otherwise in the public domain.

5. Intentional violation of this Order is punishable as a contempt, and may result in the imposition of civil and criminal sanctions. However, nothing contained in this protective order shall preclude any party from applying to the Court for further relief or for modification of any provision hereof.

6. Upon receiving this Order, defense counsel shall forthwith inform their clients of the contents of the Order, provide them with a copy of the Order, and ensure themselves that their clients fully understand the seriousness of any breaches of this Order.
